Version 10.13: Fixes and improvements

1. Updates the version number to 10.13
2. This update includes update 10.12.
3. Corrects the starting week number for weeks in the year 2008.
4. Updates the licencing procedure.

From this update forward if your licence has expired you will still receive the licence expired warning message every time you start the program. However, the program will still proceed to the menu when you press <ENTER>. Until the licence has been updated only reporting programs can be run. Attendance Entry, Calculate and Post and various other 'input' type programs will not run. This allows the printing of historical information to satisfy reporting requirements.
